

Student Evaluations Are Open

- Please log in to AEFIS and fill out your evaluation for this class. (check your email)
- Take 5 minutes while we are getting set up to do it now!
- We would like to see our numbers above 60%!
- Believe it or not ... This is really important. The CS department takes it seriously!

Open Source and Conflict

- In the wake of Node IPC, here are some thoughts on Open Source Principles and access.
- It is a short, but somewhat interesting read.

Final Contributions

- Please remember to give us a summary of contributions for the end of the semester
- These can be a single slide per person attached to the end of your presentation.
- You must do this by 11:59:59 on 04/27/2022. Your instructional staff will get together to grade on 04/28
 - No Late Days/No Extensions!

Format

You can generate your list automatically by running the following command (requires git and sed on your computer)

```
git log --author <YOUR NAME OR
EMAIL> | grep ^commit | sed
s/"commit "/"https:\\\\github.com\\<GITHUB
USERNAME>\\<GITHUB_REPO
NAME>\\commit\\"/
```
